

Learning Plan Format

Class Title: Evaluating & Citing Sources

Description: Hit a Home Run! How can you be sure your students are getting reliable and accurate information? In this session you will learn about searching the Internet, how to evaluate websites, and proper citing of the sources used.

Learning Targets:

Understand and apply criteria for evaluating websites.

Demonstrate understanding of searching for relevant, reliable information.

Understand proper citing of resources found on the Internet.

Create/bookmark a list of appropriate websites for your project.

WI Educator Standards addressed: 1, 4, 7

Class vocabulary:

Learning Styles accommodated in this class:

Verbal (linguistic), Social (interpersonal), and Visual (special).

Multiple Intelligences accommodated in this class:

Linguistic, Interpersonal, and Visual/spatial.

Bibliography:

Schrock, Kathy. "Tapping the Internet for Classroom Use: Information Literacy Skill Schools 8.2 (01 Mar. 2001): 38-43. ERIC. EBSCO. [Library name], [City], [State] <<http://search.ebscohost.com/login.aspx?direct=true&db=eric&AN=EJ629761&loglive>>.

Schrock, Kathy. "The ABC's of Web Evaluation." Classroom Connect: December 1

"Search Engines & Directories." Provo City Library. 24 Mar. 2009 <http://www.provo>

Christensson, Karen. RADCAB: Your vehicle for information evaluation. 24 Mar. 20
